Notice

It has been observed that some students do not attend the scheduled classwork and laboratory sessions regularly, and some often report late or leave early from the scheduled classes and laboratory sessions. In their academic interest, the students are instructed to attend classwork and laboratory sessions regularly as per the notified timetable. Students are informed that their attendance and regularity are strictly monitored, and no relaxation will be given. Students involved in budging classes or laboratory sessions shall have to face disciplinary actions, including actions wherein such students may be struck off from the rolls of the Department.

All faculty members are requested to report the particulars of students who remain irregular in their classwork or laboratory sessions.
